

“Art Of Gastronomy” Exhibit of 3D Sculptures By Stanford Slutsky Opens Sunday

Posted on September 15th, 2016 • Category: Acrylic, Art, Art Events in Palm Beach County, Art in Public Spaces, Galleries, Local News and Events, Mixed Media, Sculpture, Shirley & Barton Weisman Delray Community Center

Boynton Beach artist, Stanford Slutsky, exhibits a new body of his attention grabbing 3D sculptured, larger-than-life mixed media Food Art at the Weisman Delray Community Center. The public is invited to a Free, Meet The Artist Reception on Sunday, September 18th. The Rickie Report shares the details and some sneak peeks. Bon Appétit! What a great addition to your home or place of work!

Shirley & Barton Weisman Delray Community Center

7091 W. Atlantic Avenue Delray Beach, FL 33446

PRESENTS:

“Art Of Gastronomy” A SOLO EXHIBIT BY:

STANFORD SLUTSKY

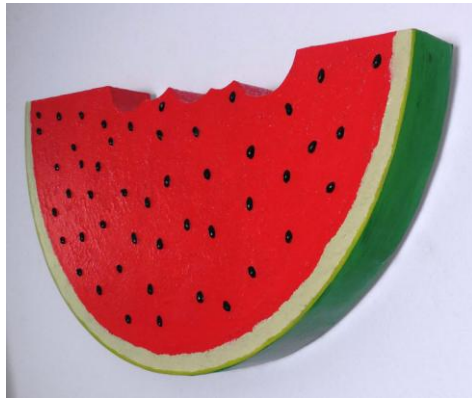

“Four Taffy Apples” by Stanford Slutsky 15 x 15 x 15

Round Candy Box 16" round

Stanford Slutsky tells The Rickie Report, “I’m chasing the sweet thing in life”!

Watermelon 20 x 39 x 5

For more information about the artist visit:

www.stanfordslutsky.com

or email mr-food@att.net

or call: 561.865.1285